In Re: Tim Terragni

On November 17, 2005, the Dunbarton Ethics Committee held a hearing on a complaint against the Respondent, Tim Terragni.

The complaint charged Mr. Terragni with violation of Section I.H of the Dunbarton Code of Ethics. That section is entitled Fair and Equal Treatment and provides as follows:

Acting in their official capacity, all officials, board members and employees of town government shall give each and every person fair and equal treatment. No official, board member or employee shall in the course of their official duties give or deny any person special consideration, advantage, or treatment as a result of the person's public status, position, sex, race, religion, creed, sexual orientation, or national origin.

The complaint alleged that Mr. Terragni violated Section I.H on three separate occasions while acting in his capacity as a member of the Board of Assessors.

At the hearing, the Ethics Committee heard the testimony of six witnesses: Josh Gagne, Lynda Gagne, Brian Little, Harlan "Bud" Noyes, Ken Swayze, and Tim Terragni. Both Parties also submitted numerous documents for consideration of the Ethics Committee.

The Ethics Committee concludes that the Complainants failed to establish by clear and convincing evidence that Mr. Terragni violated the Dunbarton Ethics Code.

Respectfully Submitted,
