

CONSERVATION COMMISSION MEETING

DATE: January 8, 2014

MEMBERS PRESENT: Brett St. Clair, Darlene Jarvis, Mel Gendron, Drew Groves, Ron Jarvis

Alternates Present: Matt Lavey, Margaret Watkins

MEMBERS ABSENT: George Holt

Alternates Absent: Stan Sowle

MINUTES: December's minutes were accepted

OLD BUSINESS:

Gating of Legache Hill Road

Brett St. Clair reported that the Selectmen support the Conservation Commission's (CC) goal of gating Legache Hill Road. Brett will be meeting with the Selectmen on January 9th to further discuss accomplishing this.

NEW BUSINESS:

Interest expressed in a conservation easement by resident

After a brief discussion Commission members agreed to pursue having Scot Heath perform a limited appraisal to establish the approximate value of a conservation easement on a tract of land in town at a probable cost of $800.

Dunbarton's 250th celebration

Fred Mullen met with the Commission to encourage members to plan to participate some way. Brett St. Clair proposed organizing hikes to the special areas on the list of "Dunbarton's wonders" which the CC compiled last year.

UPCOMING EVENTS:

January 11, 2014 – walk with forester Ed White in "treatment unit 3" of the Kimball Pond Conservation Area, meet at 9 AM on Kimball Pond Road near the former Nassikas homestead (Warriners)

NEXT MEETING: February 12, 2014, 7:30 PM

RESPECTFULLY SUBMITTED: Darlene M. Jarvis