OLD BUSINESS:

Membership

Dave Nault is willing to serve as the Committee’s Selectman Representative and his appointment has been approved by Brett St. Clair and Ed White, the respective chairs of the Conservation Commission and the Town Forest Committee.

Ed White and Margaret Watkins, having been reappointed, and were sworn in by Linda Landry, Town clerk.

Signage

Ron Jarvis described the signs available from Voss Signs and suggested members check out the company’s web site. Voss prints many signs including a “No Wheeled Vehicles” sign. If fewer than 25 signs are ordered the cost per sign will be $4.90 each. Ordering 25 or more signs would reduce the cost to $4.25 per sign. Ron suggested the Conservation Commission might be interested in placing a joint order with the Kuncanowet committee. Voss allows you to “mix and match” and a joint order could reduce the cost per sign for each committee.

Fogg’s field

On Thursday, April 20th, Fred Mullen, Ron Jarvis and Darlene Jarvis met with John C. Brown representative, Steve Snook, at Fogg’s field. Mr. Snook confirmed that the cost of a day’s work with the brontosaurus is $1400. Ron told Mr. Snook that he felt the Committee’s priority would be to cut back as much growth along the inside perimeter of the fields as possible in the time allotted. Fred asked about cutting the tree limbs overhanging the field where they would interfere with the mowing machinery.

A motion was made by Brett St. Clair to contract John C. Brown to do the work discussed at a cost of $1400 with any additional work done at the discretion of the chairs not to exceed $2000. Members approved the motion (9-0).
